

REINKE'S DAVIS TO SUCCEED FRIEHE ON 2007 TTMA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DESHLER, Neb. (June 25, 2007) – In light of the recent retirement of former Reinke Manufacturing, Inc. president, Bob Friehe, Reinke vice president of engineering, John Davis, will assume Friehe's vacated spot on the 2007 Truck Trailer Manufacturers Association (TTMA) board of directors.

Davis has been with Reinke for nearly 35 years overseeing all engineering functions in the trailer and chassis divisions, as well as mechanized agricultural irrigation division. Davis has a degree in agricultural engineering and is accredited as a professional engineer.

Friehe, who has served as the president of Reinke from 1999-2007, held the TTMA board of directors position since 2005. Davis now joins fifteen other board members from across the U.S. and Canada representing TTMA for the upcoming year.

TTMA is an international trade association comprised of truck trailer and tank trailer manufacturers, along with cargo container, cargo tanks for trucks and container chassis manufacturers. The associate membership represents material and component suppliers to the industry.

Founded in 1954, Reinke Manufacturing Company, Inc. manufactures intermodal container chassis and over the road aluminum flatbeds, as well as combination aluminum/steel flatbeds, and dropdeck trailers. Headquartered in Deshler, Neb., Reinke's products are used throughout the United States and Canada, and in more than 60 countries worldwide.
